Good Air. - Good View. - Good Health.

A Special Invitation is extended to Everybody to visit Honolulu's most delightful residence site,

PACIFIC HEIGHTS.

Via Maxima. KAIULANI DRIVE—Aptly termed, the Via Maxima or Grand Boulevard, and in itself an artistic piece of engineering—affords easy access to all points, as also scenic and marine views of exquisite grandeur at every turn.

Electric Railway. Contracts have been let for material, and installation placed in the hands of a competent electrical engineer to be fully completed by June 1st. Having an independent power plant we are prepared to furnish power for electric lighting, heating and other purposes, to our home builders at most reasonable rates.

As Promised. Our reservoirs are now completed and water mains laid so as to supply each lot. Permits for making water connections will be granted on application.

An inspection of the attractive homes now building, or the name of purchasers of lots, will convince anyone that PACIFIC HEIGHTS is the choicest and most select of all the residence sites of Honolulu.

Cricket Re-divivus.

If late, the sounding swart of the willow and the buzz of the busy ball as it promulgated to the boundary, have been missing quantities on the classic lawn of Waikiki. Last Saturday afternoon however all this was changed. One of the time honored engagements between England and the Rest of the World was on the tapis.

The Britishers turned up in battalions but not so the R. O. W. who, rumor has it, were luzzinating with the flesh and the devil at Waikiki. The writer himself left the issue to the flip of a coin—heads Makiki, tail, Waikiki.

It came heads and the coin was thrown in disgust down a sewer. At 3 o'clock Messrs. Anderson and Cockburn chose sides and after an exciting game victory rested with the latter by the close margin of 10 runs. Batting honors were carried off by Messrs. Jordan 33 not out, Garvin 37 not out, Anderson 32 not out, and Blackman 15, while Cockburn and Parish were the star twirlers.

The fielding taken as a whole was execrable. The players were incited to yeoman efforts by the presence of some ladies and a barrel. A noticeable feature was the appearance of new blood in the teams which augurs well for a speedy revival of interest in the game.

The annual general meeting of the club will take place on the 19th inst. in the parlor of the Arlington hotel. The next game will probably be played on Easter Monday and will be between 11 representing H. C. C. and Theo. Davis & Co.

A Diminutive Train Wrecker.

The Judge looked above his glasses in the District Court Saturday morning, when a small boy was hustled before his tribunal by a big police officer to answer a charge of being a common nuisance by placing a broomstick across the rails of a tramway track "just to see the fun." The boy admitted his sin and, what was worse, admitted that he sells newspapers; but, as a point to the credit side of his character, stated that he never read any of them. In response to questions from the Court he said that he was 10 years of age, and that his Ma never wore slippers, a fact that the Judge deplored. His Honor held, however, that if slipper's, were scarce in Johnny's household a shingle—no reference to Republican clubs—could always be found and be handy for a boy who wanted to see Pain's poor mules jump or hurry up while dragging one of the painful arks across a broomstick placed on a track by a naughty small boy. The Magistrate looked sternly at the little fellow, who had a handkerchief and a merry twinkle in his eyes, and asked whether he knew what damages he might have done; what gruesome accidents might have happened if the mules had run away; and what terrible punishment would fall on his youthful head besides on that part of his anatomy where his Pa or Ma should apply shingle, slippers, or straps.

The boy looked penitent, and at the Judge, and whispered: "I belong to the Central Union Church, and I tried to assist Mr. Kincaid's prayers for Rapid Transit." The boy was immediately discharged.

The Proposed Pension.

A bill has been introduced in congress providing for a cash payment of $20,000 to Liliuokalani, the dusky ex queen of the Sandwich islands, and a further annual pension of $10,000 as long as she shall live. The idea will have the support of all liberal and fair-minded people. It was the United States that removed her from her throne and it was the United States that annexed her dominions. It is nothing more than right that the United States should provide for her, or at least see that she is properly provided for in her declining years.—Santa Rosa Press.

The rejection by the Senate of the proposition to pension ex Queen Liliuokalani was made upon grounds quite characteristic of the present Administration. In effect the decision to deny Liliuokalani her rights or even a part of them was arrived at, not because there was any fair question of the justice of her claims, but because if restitution or partial restitution were made to her, others robbed in the name of Christianity, Civilization and the Flag might now or at some future time plead Liliuokalani's case as a precedent, and that might be expensive to the United State.

Hoar, who is the conscience of the Senate, stated the fact that Liliuokalani was proprietor in her own right of a large amount of property which Dole & Co. took from her when they dethroned her; but that made no difference. Statesmen who are capable of treating the Porto Ricans as those unfortunates are being treated, of crushing the first Asiatic republic of conspiring to steal Cuba, were capable of sanctioning the robbery of a woman, and they showed it.—Stockton Mail.

Warships to Hold China in Check.

The policy of the Empress Dowager and the influence of Russia at the court of Peking threaten the open-door policy in the Orient, and so serious is the situation considered to be that the Administration at Washington has decided on sending warships to the Chinese coast, there to co-operate with the British naval and land forces, if necessary. Meanwhile Russia is preparing to retain its hold on Persia, and is massing troops at Odessa, in the southern portion of the empire. Turkey, too, seems to be anxious to measure swords with Great Britain, and is reported to have mobilized a great army distributed among various camps. The war clouds in the old world are growing darker.

O. P. S.

They had a luau at the Merchant's Exchange yesterday. The goat was killed and there is no more "Bock" to be had. After the goat was finished and the rich spring of Bock beer had run dry, Seeley Shaw looked at Sam Nowlein and the O. P. S. specially bottled for the Merchant's Exchange, was flowing and there is plenty of it. Sam Nowlein stated confidentially that O. P. S. does not necessarily form "Oom Paul surrenders;" but that the legend reads: "Oh! please somemore."

SALE OF LAND IN MANOA VALLEY, HONOLULU, OAHU.

OPPORTUNITY IS GIVEN TO purchase in Manoa Valley a beautifully situated property containing all the necessary essentials for a homestead and where healthful climate and picturesque scenery are in the midst of historic surroundings and all in contact with improved grounds, planted with various foreign fruits as well as supplied with fruit trees indigenous to Hawaii. The acreage of 45.61 acres in fee simple and 31.16 acres under long and favorable leases.

Included in the improvements on the fee simple portions, is a roomy modern dwelling house furnished with sanitary and other conveniences; there is also situated thereon a roomy carriage shed and stable.

The celebrated Waialeale (Water of the Gods) Falls is in near proximity and the cool, clear, sparkling water therefrom flows through the grounds, supplying ample opportunity for increased irrigation to the acreage already planted and which is capable of considerable improvement.
